Death Investigation

October 2, 2017 – At approximately 10:30 am, the body of a deceased female was found in the water at Lake Melvin Park in the Village of Dane. The Dane County Sheriff's Office, Village of Dane Police, and the Dane County Medical Examiner are investigating the death, and are asking for the public's help.

On Saturday, September 30th, Village of Dane Police was alerted that 27-year-old Marisa Dahms had not been heard from since Thursday evening. Her last known whereabouts were at Lake Melvin Park.

The Dane County Medical Examiner's Office will conduct an autopsy to confirm the identity of the person discovered today, along with the manner and cause of death.

Anyone who may have seen unusual activity in the park, or had contact with Marisa in the last several days is asked to call the Dane County tip line at 608-284-6900.
